PERSONAL SUMMARY

Makhosonke is a technophile who is driven to play a role in the future technology inventions that will enhance people's lives. A friendly, funny, and humble man who is ready to learn from anyone and ready for any challenges that everyday life has to offer. A consistent, persistent, honest, and punctual problem solver who thrives under pressure. I would be happy to work in a place where learning is encouraged, I work well alone and even better with a team.
